SENSOR GUARDS™

Photo-eye protection. Residential photo-eye sensors are one of the key safety features that homeowners depend on and expect to work properly. However, photo eye-sensors can easily become misaligned by trash cans, bikes and feet. Sensor Guards protect the photo-eye sensors from everyday wear and tear, prevent the sensors from becoming misaligned and give homeowners a piece of mind. Sensor Guards universally fit over 90% of all residential garage door photo-eye sensors.

SensorGuards features:

- Made from recycled, durable and flexible plastic
- Withstands changes in temperature
- US and Foreign Patents Pending
- Easy to install
- Full replacement warranty*
